

KILLED IN GENNA BOOZE WAR

IS A DICTATOR NEEDED BY U. S. IN TIME OF WAR?

Army, Navy Heads Not Quite Agreed.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Shall we provide in advance by statute that in our next war the United States will fight under the direction of a dictatorship?

This is the question put up to Congress by the Capper-Johnson bill providing for universal draft of men, power, the mobilization of material resources, and control of prices by the President. The measure is endorsed by the war department and the American Legion. The military affairs committee of Congress soon are to hold hearings on the bill at which arguments for and against its provisions will be submitted.

Peril of Dictatorship Seen.

Numerous labor and other organizations have manifested hostility to the measure on various grounds, among them being the contention that it proposes to set up a dangerous dictatorship in time of war.

Secretary of the Navy Wiltbur is inclined to think that a constitutional amendment would be necessary to enable the President in time of war to commandeer materials at less than market price and suggests the danger of such legislation leading to a dictatorship.

A Privilege Hard to Dislodge.

In discussing the proposed legislation, "that we ought to be very careful in our enthusiasm for complete preparedness and for the greatest and highest efficiency in the event of war, to overlook the fact that authorization of acts which destroy liberty during war may lead to a destruction of the government itself."

"You do not have to go very far away from home to see illustrations of that today. In fact, we can stay in this hemisphere. I do not want to mention specific cases. And the great difficulty the government will have in the preparation for war is to avoid doing things which will give the opportunity to men in authority to assume a dictatorship and take over the government."

Davis Points a Precedent.

"Call it a dictatorship if you will," retorts Secretary of War Davis, "but the fact remains that it is necessary to lodge vast power in the executive to fight a war successfully and with the minimum cost of man power and material resources. If this bill proposes dictatorship then we fought the last war under a dictatorship eventually and that was what enabled us to win."

"This bill simply proposes to provide for the emergency in advance, so that man power and resources can be mobilized at once on the outbreak of war and prices controlled instead of losing valuable time by delaying until such measures could be enacted after war begins."

Started by Harding.

Senator Capper (Rep., Kas.) and Representative Johnson (Rep., S. D.) employ similar arguments in support of the bill, which is the outgrowth of the demand by the late President Harding in his inaugural address for legislation to cope with war as well as men in time of war and to control prices and take the profit out of war.

The more the matter was studied, however, the more it became apparent that what was desired is not the concentration of wealth, not the taking of property, but the control of resources by the government to insure their most effective use in the war effort without profiteering by the individual. Hence the term "drafting material" resources employed in an earlier bill was dropped and "control" substituted.

Provisions of Bill.

The Capper-Johnson bill provides: "That in the event of war declared by Congress to exist, which in the judgment of the President demands the immediate increase of the military establishment, the President be and he is authorized to draft into the service of the United States such members of the unorganized militia as he may deem necessary; provided, that all persons drafted into service before the ages of 21 and 35, or such other limits as the President may fix, shall be drafted without exemption on account of industrial occupation."

"Sec. 2. That in case of war, or when the President shall judge the same to be imminent, he is authorized and it shall be his duty when in his opinion such emergency requires it—

(A)—To determine and proclaim the material resources, industrial or

MEXICAN REBEL BAND KILLS U. S. MAN AND TROOPS

8 Passengers Die; Steals $150,000.

BY JOHN CORNYN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Mexico City, Jan. 10.—Robert C. Russell, an American, was slain by a band of Mexican rebels, which captured and burned the Guadaluajara-Mexico City train near La Barco last night.

The insurgents, led by Col. Manuel Nunez, who was commander of the garrison of Guadaluajara during the de la Huerta revolt, killed the military guard, at least seven other passengers besides the American, wounded many others and looted the train. All the passengers were robbed.

Twenty bodies have been recovered, according to reports received here. More are believed to be buried under the debris.

Steal $50,000 in Money and Silver.

Money and bar silver worth more than $50,000 pesos (about $150,000) was taken from the safes in the baggage cars. After dynamiting the safes, the rebels drove all wounded and unrobbed passengers from the cars and burned them. The bodies of the slain soldiers and some of the passengers were burned, according to delayed dispatches. The rebels cut all wires before fleeing from the scene.

Heavy detachments of federal troops under Gen. Evaristo Torres, commander of the troops stationed at Guadaluajara, have been ordered in pursuit of the rebels.

Outrage Follows U. S. Protest.

The death of the American in this latest rebel outrage came just as politicians of Mexico were waxing warm in their discussion of the protest of the United States against Mexico's anti-foreign land and petroleum laws.

The protest delivered to the foreign office by Ambassador James R. Sheffield was marked by news dispatches from Washington that recognition of Mexico under former President Obregon may be withdrawn if the retroactive features of the new laws are not cancelled.

The day was also featured by an official statement by President Calles declaring Mexico will not use any foreign money for governmental purposes.

The statement explains the refusal of the government to permit investment of $20,000,000 by the White Electric corporation of New York for irrigation work in Mexico. President Calles declares he will not saddle the Mexican government with more debts.

Laws to Aid Mexican Nationalism.

His statement is popular with the Nationalist party, which is backing him. The Nationalists evidently would like to see all foreign capital in Mexico handicapped and business of all kinds gradually pass into the hands of Mexicans.

Deputy Justo A. Santa Anna, radical Nationalist, in an interview with Excelsior this morning, says the so-called anti-foreign laws were framed expressly in the interests of Mexican nationalism. Señor Santa Anna, who is prominent in the radical party, forced these laws upon Congress. He insists that the law has a perfect right to have whatever laws it pleases, even if they abrogate treaties and international agreements standing in the way of such laws.

Tells U. S. to Go to Court.

Foreign Minister Saenz refused to issue a further statement today concerning America's protest on the retroactive features of the land and petroleum laws. Señor Saenz maintains that foreigners affected by the anti-foreign laws should, where they believe an injustice has been done them, bring the matter before the Mexican courts. This is the equivalent of saying that the laws do not concern foreign nations but only foreigners located in Mexico or with property interests there, and who are subject to Mexican law as to rights, obligations, and property. He takes the position that the outcry against the new laws is made by those interested in protecting with the object of getting as much evidence as possible.

Señor Saenz said in a statement last night that he had no reason to believe the protests of the United States were well founded, as so far the laws to which objections are made, have not been ratified or published or placed in force and for that reason their effect could not be known. Señor Saenz promised a presidential proclamation of the laws within the next few days.

MUNDING'S LOVE RIVAL ENDS LIFE

New Tragedy in Slaying of Julia Douglass.

One murdered, one in prison, the third a suicide—that this morning is the finished fabric of fate woven round the lives of Julia Douglass, her riding master fiancé, George Munding, and Elmer R. Plummer, former chief of police of La Grange, where the murder tragedy was enacted a brief eighteen months ago.

Munding murdered Mrs. Douglass on her own eleven acre riding academy farm near La Grange on Sept. 29, 1934. He was sentenced to twenty-two years in the penitentiary for it a few months later.

Tragedy Led to Suicide.

And yesterday came dispatches from Haines City, Fla., telling of the suicide of Capt. Plummer by shooting. The messages stated he left behind notes indicating that he killed himself as an aftermath of the death tragedy which wiped Mrs. Douglass out and sent her mad lover away to do time.

Plummer, for several months before Mrs. Douglass was shot to death by Munding, was the young equestrienne's constant riding companion on the bridge paths around fashionable La Grange. He testified at the trial that followed the tragedy; and in the interim between the killing and the trial his wife divorced him.

The letters found in Plummer's room in the Florida hotel told of all these things: of his heartache over the tragedy that came into his life, his grief over the death of Mrs. Douglass, later his sorrow over the fact his home was broken up.

New Career's Failure.

The letters indicate he had gone out in search of a new career, but he faced failure, and that it was more than he could stand.

The young captain's name—he was rated a hero in the A. R. F.—ran all through the story of the killing of Mrs. Abb Douglass by Munding.

It was on the evening of Sept. 23, that Munding, north side riding master, operator of a much patronized academy, crashed with drink and jealousy, went to Mrs. Douglass' riding academy farm near La Grange.

The affianced pair quarreled violently. Time and again Plummer's name was shouted out by one or the other.

Genna departed on the trip that resulted in the deaths of Mike and the policeman.

After Spingola complained bitterly when he was asked if the Genna killings were responsible for the death of his brother.

"Why connect us with that?" he demanded. "We haven't done anything wrong. We're not bootleggers. It's all that defense fund."

His brother, he declared, had told the collectors to "go around the corner" if they wanted more money. Around the corner had once been the headquarters of the now defunct Italian Republican club.

Tells of Recent Threat.

A little later Spingola said his brother had been threatened recently by Hymie Weiss, a reputed bootlegger and a member of the gang headed by Dean O'Banion at the time of the latter's death. A call to apprehend Weiss for questioning was sent out.

The shooting of Henry Spingola took place at 8:30 p. m. As he sat in his car four men left an automobile across the street, ran over to him and started firing. Having pumped nearly a score of shots into the car, they fled.

Immediately after the shooting was reported, Capt. Daniel Lynch of the Maxwell street station sent two patrol wagons to the scene and took into custody all the patrons in the restaurant and all those found loitering in the vicinity. They were kept at the station.

Friends Can't Name Slayers.

Meanwhile three friends of the wounded man rushed him to the county hospital in his own bullet-riddled car. Police found them there. They are Dominic Volpe, known as "Young Mope," Joe Navigato, 315 South Ashland avenue, and Frank Tortorello, 853 Gilpin place. They knew nothing of the killing, they asserted, except that they had heard the shots, rushed out and found their friend bleeding to death.

Piecing out the meager information, police believe that the three killers drove south in Halsted street to a cross street and escaped. The fourth, described as of medium height, well dressed, with a blue overcoat and a soft hat, ran into Forquer street and disappeared.

Lived in Oak Park.

Spingola was unmarried. He lived with his parents, his brothers, and sisters, at 417 South Taylor avenue, Oak Park. This house, a $48,000 bungalow, was owned by Angelo Genna. At the time of Angelo's death, on May 26, 1925, he was on his way to make a $9,000 payment. Assassins' bullets cut his career short on the street.

Mrs. Genna—the孀—Spingola, who had been married to Angelo in all but regal splendor, with a wedding cake that weighed a ton at the reception, inherited the property. Joseph Spingola, father of Henry, with Mrs. Genna and others of his nine children, moved in.

Henry and Peter, the brothers who entered the automobile business, had started helping their father in his wine and beer business before prohibition. Friends of Henry recalled last night that he had been busy many nights in the pre-Volstead era carrying beer up many flights of stairs, earnestly trying to get ahead.

Members of the family, including his mother and father, went to the hospital and later to the police station. His mother, Mrs. Caroline Spingola, in a black seal coat and with a black silk kerchief over her head, was visible in her grief. She was accompanied by Mrs. Bedella Belmonte, a sister-in-law of the slain man.

Capt. Stege's Comment.

Capt. Stege briefly discussed philosophically the latest murder.

"All the bad ones are gradually getting out," he said. "Three of the Gennas are dead. Spingola is dead. John Tortorello is in Evanston. Peter and Sam Genna are in Italy. Al Brown is in jail in Brooklyn. The alcohol gang is going or gone. They take care of themselves."

HELEN KELLER, DEAF, DUMB, AND BLIND. TO CHAT WITH PRESIDENT

Washington, D. C., Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Helen Keller, the famous deaf, dumb, and blind woman, will call on President Coolidge by appointment tomorrow and expects to "listen" to what he says by the lip reading method of placing her fingers on the President's lips.

Miss Keller came to Washington today accompanied by her sister, Anne Sullivan Macy. She is touring the country in an endeavor to raise $2,000,000 for the American Foundation for the Blind, of which President Coolidge is honorary president. After calling on the President, Miss Keller and Mrs. Macy will be received by Mrs. Coolidge, who was once a teacher in a school for the deaf and dumb.

REVELER DIES AS AUTO UPSETS ON ROADHOUSE TOUR

Thirty Killed in First Ten Days of New Year.

Cook county's automobile death rate so far in 1926 is three a day. Donald Hill of Fort Dodge, Ia., was the thirtieth victim. He died yesterday as he was being taken to the Key-stone hospital after the automobile in which he and two companions, returning from a tour of roadhouses, overturned in Elmwood Park. Examination by Dr. L. K. Eastman disclosed that Hill's neck had been broken.

The other men, Allen Tannehill, 1700 North Crawford avenue, and Clarence Woboe, 5209 Lind avenue, were uninjured. They were held by the Elmwood Park police.

Knows Little of Accident.

Tannehill, driver of the car, was unable to tell how he happened to run off the road at a spot where there were no obstructions. Both men admitted that they had been drinking in the roadhouses.

Hill lived at 610 North 10th street, Fort Dodge, and was connected with the Berry Bros. Varnish company of Detroit.

Frank F. Vater, 65 years old, 6322 Kenmore avenue, was instantly killed near Milwaukee when the automobile in which he was riding collided with another and overturned. He was pinned beneath the wreck and his skull was crushed. His son, Donald, 35 years old, and his daughter, Mrs. Fred Schmidt of Milwaukee, were uninjured.

The hands of the clock indicate the number of deaths in Cook county from automobiles and guns. Yesterday was the tenth day of 1926.

Husbands Force Raid on Gambling Club of Wives

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

BERLIN, Jan. 10.—Nine women, mostly wives of provision dealers who had deserted their stalls in the public market, were arrested this morning in a police raid on a woman's gambling club. This is the only gambling club so far found in Berlin which functioned for the fair sex alone. The raid was caused by complaints of the market vendors, who objected to their wives' gambling proclivities.

N. U. STUDENT HELPS COP IN BANDIT CHASE

A Northwestern university student and an Evanston policeman, acting together last night, captured two youths who had just held up and stolen the automobile of Milton Lam, 2728 Noyes street, Evanston, who was riding with Miss Mae Strauss of Morton Grove.

Jack Comer, the student, added Patrolman Richard Geuss in searching the two men shortly after they were apprehended when an overheated radiator forced them to stop the stolen car. Both were identified and admitted their guilt. They gave their names as Charles Dougherty, 19 years old, and Theodore Shumaker, aged 18. Policeman Geuss won commendation last November when he beat a colored bandit to the draw, killing him, and then shot and seriously wounded the dead man's companion. Both bandits were caught in the act of robbing an Evanston store.

KRUTCOFF WED TO MABEL OLSON, HIS FRIENDS SAY

Friends of Charles Krutcoff, 55 years old, for many years a member of the county board of assessors and well known Republican politician of the Fourth ward, declared last night that he was married secretly last Saturday to Mrs. Mabel B. Olson, social service secretary in the state's attorney's office.

Mr. Krutcoff was divorced from his first wife on Oct. 10, 1925, when Superior Judge Harry Lewis handed down a decree on Krutcoff's charges of desertion. Monthly alimony of $400 was agreed on.

The couple could not be found last night, although they are reported to be living at 4905 Drexel boulevard. Mr. Krutcoff is a member of the Hamilton, South Shore Country, and the Illinois Athletic clubs.

BLAMES BELIEFS, CASTES OF INDIA FOR ITS POVERTY

Centuries of religious prejudice, caste discrimination, and ignorance, deeply imbedded in the lives of the people of India, have contributed in no small measure to the present dire poverty of that country, Dr. Samuel Higginbottom told an audience that crowded Orchestra hall last night.

Dr. Higginbottom, for whom his alma mater, Princeton, created the degree of doctor of philosophy, has spent twenty-two years in India. There he has established a farm and school at Allahabad, where he not only instructs the natives in improved agricultural methods but also superintends a leper colony, in addition to his principal work of preaching the gospel.

The doctrine of the transmigration of souls—the belief that the souls of the dead are reincarnated in animals—has so great a hold on the mind of the Indians, Dr. Higginbottom declared, that it is practically an impossibility to persuade them to destroy even the field rat.

MEETING CALLED BY SMALL PLAN FARM

Chicago Asked to Lead in Fight

Gov. Len Small yesterday gave favorable consideration to a call for a meeting to discuss the surplus crop problem of the farmers of Illinois. Three thousand corn growers at Morris, Ill., on Saturday, urged that they be given a hearing unless the crop can be sold to the governor and the representatives of Chicago farmers.

The governor, reached at Morris, called a conference today. He will be urged by the Illinois Corn Producers' Association, and the Illinois Farmers' Association, and the Illinois Grange, to call a meeting of the farmers of Illinois, to be held in Chicago, to be attended by the governor and business men for the purpose of discussing the problem.

Appeal to Four Great

The appeal to Chicago was made by the Association of Commercial and Industrial Bankers of the State of Illinois, and the Clearing House Association. It was signed by the Association of Commercial Bankers, the Association of Industrial Bankers, the Association of Savings Bankers, and the Association of Trust Bankers.

"We appeal to your city to take the leadership in the rescue agriculture," the letter said. "Chicago, as the capital of great agricultural section, has a responsibility, and should assume it. The Chicagoans united at this time, the Chicagoans of the east at Washington, and the Chicagoans of the west at Chicago, to lead in the fight for the farmer."

The prosperity and well-being of the state of Illinois depends on the growth and progress of the farmer. Our interest and our duty are the same.

ADVERTISE IN THE TRIBUNE

MEETING CALLED VERY SMALL TO PLAN FARM AID

Chicago Asked to Take
Lead in Fight.

Gov. Len Small yesterday announced that he will call a meeting to dispose of the surplus corn crop now in the hands of the farmers of Illinois.

Three thousand corn growers gathered at Morris, Ill., on Saturday, after making out that they face financial ruin unless the crop can be sold, appealed to the governor and business organizations of Chicago for aid.

The governor, reached at his home in Kankakee, called a conference for 10 a. m. today. He will be urged by F. D. Brown, of Cornell, chairman of the legislative committee of the Illinois Agricultural association, and Grundy county business men to call a meeting in Chicago, to be attended by both farmers and business men, for discussion of the problem.

Appeal to Four Groups.

The appeal to Chicago was addressed to the Association of Commerce, the Board of Trade, the Bankers' association and the Clearing House association.

It was signed by Frank H. Hayes, representing the Morris chamber of commerce; F. E. Longmire of Grundy County Farm bureau; and E. E. Wilcox of the Grundy County Bankers' association.

"We appeal to your city as a whole to take the leadership in the fight to save agriculture," the letter said. "Chicago, as the capital city of our agricultural section, has this responsibility, and should assume the leadership. Unless the central west is united at this time the interests of the east at Washington will be strong for us and our work will be in vain."

"The prosperity and welfare of the agricultural states of the middle west depend on the growth and prosperity of our corn. Our interest and yours are the same."

Press Falls in Line.

Your grain exchange has a tremendous influence and should be aligned with the farmer. Your press, to its duty, has opened its columns to the need of the farmer and should follow the way. We trust that your financial and business institutions will carry on the work until the farmer is relieved."

Admission of a definite export commission policy to take care of crop surplus will be one of the principal matters to be taken up at the annual meeting of the Illinois Agricultural association at the University of Illinois Jan. 21 and 22, it was announced yesterday. Secretary of Agriculture and former Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, both of whom have been themselves on the export commission, will speak.

FIND $5,000,000 FORGED NOTES OF PORTUGAL'S BANK

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
THE HAGUE, Jan. 10.—A sequel to the Portuguese Angola bank scandal occurred here with the discovery of $5,000,000 worth of forged notes printed in London and stored in a Rotterdam forwarding office of a Hague bank. The police have arrested a Dutchman and a Turk suspected of being agents of the Portuguese bank. A third agent, also a Turk, escaped.

Contracts alleged to have been legal in Lisbon authorizing the London printers, Waterloo & Sons, also have been discovered by the police. The bank as well as the forwarding house were completely ignorant of the contents of the boxes submitted to their care. The prisoners will appear before an investigating judge on Tuesday, but under the Dutch law the Dutchman cannot be extradited.

Angola is an African colony of Portugal. Its finances recently were reported in bad shape.

DURANT, HEAD OF MOTOR COMPANY, HURT IN WRECK

St. Augustine, Fla., Jan. 10.—(AP)—W. C. Durant, automobile manufacturer, was slightly injured in a train crash at Frontenac, Fla., today when a trainman and two Negro attendants on Mr. Durant's private car were killed.

The crash occurred when train No. 88 of the Florida East Coast railway, collided with train No. 36 on a curve. Both trains were going north.

The fireman on (C) Campbell Street No. 88, jumped from the engine when he saw the crash was inevitable and was killed instantly.

Mr. Durant's car, the Patriot, was on the rear end of train No. 36 bound from Palm Beach to New York City. Immediately after the accident, the company supplied a special train on which the automobile manufacturer was rushed to New York. With him at the time of the accident was his wife, E. Randolph Hicks, his attorney, and several friends.

Despite denial of a merger of the Continental, Ward and General Baking companies, federal investigators are looking into aspects of such a project to ascertain what would be the economic effect of a consolidation of this magnitude. The department desires, through a canvass of conditions in most of the larger eastern cities, to satisfy itself whether an actual monopoly in the baking industry is possible.

When the reports of a $400,000,000 merger project involving the three big companies first were published, Attorney General Sargent told newspaper correspondents he knew nothing about any move in the department to determine whether a violation of the federal anti-trust laws was threatened.

Persistent reports that the merger was near completion, however, caused the department to interest itself in the matter, and an under cover examination of conditions was begun.

CORN MILLERS OF SOUTHWEST TO AID CAMPAIGN

Now Operating at Only Part Capacity.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Corn millers in Kansas City and the southwest are greatly interested in the national campaign to create a more extensive demand for corn milling products. It is probable that the move of millers in this territory to follow the example of other sections and enter the campaign in earnest will result in a meeting of the American Federation of Corn Millers in St. Louis within the next month.

About fifty members from this territory will attend. Mills that have cornmeal as their chief product are in about the same position as the wheat flour millers, operating at only a portion of their capacity.

O. L. Bauer, director of the Corn Millers' association and president of the Rosedale Milling company, the largest corn mill in the southwest, declared that the corn mills in this territory could increase their output 50 per cent.

"The United States has considerable corn to dispose of this year and the campaign to stimulate consumption is certainly a worthy one," he said. "It not only helps the miller but primarily will be of the greatest help to the farmer. Anticipating success in the campaign would immediately hike the price that the farmer receives."

Current demand for cornmeal has shown a decided improvement materially in Kansas City in the last few weeks, millers state. At interior points, however, the larger runs of corn from the farms have caused price slashing among mills that has been detrimental to present trade, it is said.

CHARLES KNIGHT, MAKER OF AUTOS, TO WED IN WEST

Pasadena, Cal., Jan. 10.—(Special.)—After a courtship of six weeks, Charles Y. Knight, Chicago millionaire and inventor of a famous motor, will marry Mrs. Mamie C. Smythe, formerly of Waco, Tex., it became known today.

Mr. Knight, who still receives large royalties on the foreign patents of the valve-in-engine motor, said that, after the wedding, the newlyweds will return to the Knight mansion on South Orange Grove avenue for four days and then leave for a two months' honeymoon in Chicago and the east.

They will return to Pasadena for a short stay and then sail for Honolulu, coming back to this city in April, to attend the wedding of Mr. Knight's daughter, Alice, to Bert Bougher, Pasadena agricultural expert.

U. S. DEMOCRACY BASED ON MONEY, MUSSOLINI SAYS

ROME, Jan. 10.—(AP)—The democracy of the United States is more apparent than real, Benito Mussolini said in a special interview today. It functions well, the premier went on, because of the nation's immense superabundance of natural riches, which permits a huge and constant waste of energies. Criticizing the democratic form of government as inherently a disperser of energies, the Fascist leader said it was workable in the United States, where enormous resources permitted "luxury" waste, but impossible in Italy, where poverty necessitated the organization of the nation as "militia unable to lose any battle."

Late President Harrison's Brother Pneumonia Victim

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 10.—(AP)—J. Scott Harrison, 81, a brother of the late Benjamin Harrison, twenty-third president of the United States, died last night of pneumonia. He was a grandson of Gen. William Henry Harrison of Tippecanoe fame, who was the ninth President. Mr. Harrison was an active real estate dealer here for many years. A son, Lytle Harrison, lives in Los Angeles, Cal. Although Benjamin Harrison was a Republican, J. Scott Harrison has been a Democrat all his life.

The Rev. Charles H. Bixby Is Critically Ill in West

Word of the critical illness of the Rev. Charles H. Bixby, for many years rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, 50th street and Dorchester avenue, was received in Chicago yesterday from Coronado, Cal., where Dr. Bixby has been living for a number of years. Dr. Bixby, who retired from the active ministry when he gave up his pastorate at St. Paul's, is now 86 years old.

SPY OF EX-CZAR WHO SENT 200 TO DEATH MUST DIE

MOSCOW, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Alexander Nikulin, charged with being instrumental in sending 200 revolutionists to their doom, was sentenced to death today by the Provincial court. Expressing full penitence, Nikulin admitted betraying many revolutionists, anarchists and Red plotters during the czarist regime, but pleaded that pinched circumstances forced him to abandon honest work as a university graduate for the more remunerative calling of a spy.

He caused a stir in the court room by declaring that the Czarist secret police undoubtedly contributed to Stolypin's assassination in 1911, although Dmitry Bogroff, a lawyer and former secretary of the pure food commission at St. Petersburg, was executed as the real murder of the premier.

Bogroff shot premier Stolypin at a theater performance at Kiev on Sept. 14, 1911. An accomplice committed suicide.

sanations, and services over which government control is necessary to successful termination of such emergency and such control shall be exercised by him through agencies then existing or which he may create for such purposes.

"[E]—To take such steps as may be necessary to stabilize prices of services and of all commodities declared to be essential, whether such services and commodities are required by the government or by the civilian population."

Where Difficulties Arise.

"In all our war plans," said Secretary Davis, "we have tried to keep in mind the general principle that if we are ever again forced into war there will be no slackers and no profiteers. The national defense act, of course, divides in a sense the responsibility for this planning. It places the responsibility for military plans on the general staff, and the planning of industrial mobilization on the assistant secretary of war."

"But in order to make definite plans the staff should know what it can rely on in the way of the number of men that can be called, or the way in which they will be called, and the assistant secretary of war should know what controls will be given to the President, the commander in chief, over industry. We are assuming, of course, that there will be certain definite controls, such as the power to fix prices, vested some place."

"It seems to me that there are certain reasons of policy which make it advisable to have certain definite controls set out before the declaration of war. There is the argument that the power to fix prices would do away with the possibility of profiteering, at least, of speculation, in certain commodities before the outbreak of war, and thereby of stopping the vicious circle of rising prices, before it starts."

Desirability for Control.

"In other words, if you have to wait two or three months in order to pass an act of congress giving somebody the right to fix prices, perhaps your prices are extended to a high level and you are starting under that handicap. If you have the authority which will go into effect on the declaration of emergency, of course, the authorities which have the right to fix these prices can start with the present levels and without this notorious circle before it gets started."

"There are various other controls that might be established—certain essential raw materials which are Former Crown Prince Carol of Roumania and his new inamorata are expected to leave Milan soon for Vienna, where he is due to set up a junta for his political, and possibly military, activities against the Brătianu government of Roumania. Carol has a large popular following in Roumania among the Liberals.

lacking in the country; control of transportation, control of power, the control of fuel, control of food, control of various industries, price fixing, priorities—all of these various controls which we feel are essential in order to carry out our plans.

"The best thing that we can do is to grant very broad powers and authority to the commander in chief, without too much restriction except the restriction of course of the constitution, giving him full power. I agree with Mr. Hoover that you must have the full power in some one, who is logically the commander in chief of the army and navy, to wage war successfully. I think the last war thoroughly demonstrated that. As to how far we should go, of course, is a question of policy which congress will determine. But a broad grant of power to take effect upon the outbreak of an emergency is perhaps more effective than an attempt to limit too greatly the powers which shall be granted."

JAPAN GUARDS BRAZIL EMBASSY AGAINST RIOTS

TOKIO, Jan. 10.—[U. N.]—A heavy police guard is posted outside the Brazilian embassy here and the ambassador who attacked policemen last week trying to keep him out of the path of the prince regent is inaccessible to all callers.

Representatives of twenty patriotic organizations passed a resolution calling the ambassador's action an insult to Japan and declaring that his presence in Tokyo was no longer desirable as he was not representative of the Brazilian people who were highly regarded by the Japanese people.

All measures possible have been taken to prevent any demonstrations in front of the embassy. The chief of police has promised all possible protection to the ambassador and his wife.

TURKISH CHIEF RAKES ENGLAND FOR MOSUL DEAL

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

ANGORA, Turkey, Jan. 10.—Indicating clearly that animosity between Turkey and England is far from subsiding, Tefik Rüşdi Bey, Turkish minister of foreign affairs, in an eagerly awaited speech before the national assembly denounced Britain's handling of the Mosul case.

In the presence of President Mustafa Kemal Pasha and the entire diplomatic corps, save notably the British, Tefik reviewed the entire quarrel, charging Britain with betraying the word of Lord Curzon, "whose promise in the name of his government that no decision would be taken by the league without Turkey's consent, has been buried and forgotten with him," and the inhumanity of its Mosul policy "condemning the population of Iraq to submit to a mandate for twenty-five years only for the purpose of alienating the territory contested by Turkey."

Tefik's declarations, often rising to a tone of bitter resentment, were received with the gravest silence from the Turkish assembly. He denounced England's efforts during the league of nations sessions to make it appear as a fait accompli the solutions Turkey rejected at Lausanne.

DEDICATE CHURCH OF WAR CHAPLAIN ON SOUTH SIDE

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

The Rev. N. B. Clinch was one of the clergy who quit an agreeable pastorate at the call of Uncle Sam in 1917 and entered the war as a chaplain. He accompanied the 33d division overseas as a senior chaplain. Returning to Chicago he took charge of a small Episcopal mission at 83d and Dante avenue.

Yesterday a $65,000 building was dedicated as the Church of the Messiah by Bishop Charles P. Anderson of the Chicago diocese. The Brotherhood of St. Andrew, a national order which originated in Chicago, co-operated in financing the campaign for funds which made the new church possible.

Among the memorials which Bishop Anderson blessed in connection with the dedicatory services were the pipe organ, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. Hope; a marble altar, given in memory of Mrs. Clinch; a gold altar cross, altar book rest, eucharistic candles, and other articles. The new church is of brick and stone and will take the place of the bungalow church which will be transformed into a rectory.

The Rev. George H. Thomas, St. Paul's church; the Rev. W. P. Crossman, Belvidere, and the Rev. W. A. Sims, St. Mark's, assisted in the dedication.

Cardinal Mercier Better, but Unable to Digest Food

BRUSSELS, Jan. 10.—(AP)—King Albert again visited Cardinal Mercier today and conversed briefly with him. He found the aged prelate slightly stronger than yesterday. The operation which Cardinal Mercier underwent for a lesion of the stomach has not fulfilled the expectations of the physicians, who hoped it would remedy a long existing condition that impaired the digestive processes. The patient, is not able to assimilate his food.

About the "Spark" in MERCHANDISE!

When George Horace Lorimer was asked if he thought 52 consecutive advertisements about a single product could be made interesting to readers of The Saturday Evening Post, he answered: "There are no dull subjects. There are only dull writers."

Every article of merchandise, its uses and its service are rich in possibility for the resourceful writer. We find by traced results that many of our campaigns produce as surely and steadily as they did ten, fifteen and twenty years ago. Which proves that news of merchandise and its uses does not lose its "spark" if the writing of such news is entrusted to skilled, interested advertising men.

The great fact for the advertiser is that superior ability costs no more than mediocre ability—the difference in results may mean years of time or fortunes in dollars. We welcome inquiry for our book "Four Square Advertising" which tells the essential steps in considering advertising.

GREEN EXPLAINS WHY LABOR ASKS HIGH WAGE LEVEL

Demands a Full Share in Profits It Helps Make.

Organized labor asks a pay envelope large enough not only to meet the requirements of the family budget but to represent, in full measure, its contribution to industry, declared William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, in an address before the Chicago forum yesterday afternoon in the Apollo theater.

"Labor," asserted Mr. Green, "intends to continue its policy of boldly claiming a just and equitable share of the products of industry. It must be maintained on a high level so that the purchasing power of the masses will correspond to their producing power."

"Unless this principle is recognized and accepted, the worker will find himself penalized because of his skill, efficiency and faithfulness."

Claims Worker's Right to Share. "If each additional unit in mechanical power, in conjunction with the skill and genius of the worker, produces an increase in production and a corresponding decrease in manufacturing costs, then the worker should rightfully share in the financial benefits that follow."

It is conceded that power, machinery and manufacturing plants would be of little service without human skill and guidance. The worker, therefore, is an important factor, and for that reason he is justified in asserting his claim for enjoyment of a just share of the ever increasing benefits that laborers have produced."

The benefits accruing to organized labor and their families have influenced the wage rates in nonunion establishments to such an extent that the entire wage level of the country has been substantially raised, Mr. Green said.

Urges Cure for Unemployment. "This achievement," he added, "has been those who adhered to the old policy to change their viewpoint and seek a new theory compatible with existing circumstances. They can no longer successfully survive the torrent of public opinion which is carrying us forward on its crest."

"We have with us, however, the great problem of unemployment. It is menacing and wasteful. I know of no problem which is more pressing or more serious than this. We must seek its correction. We must take up the gauntlet."

Mr. Green was presented to the forum by John H. Walker, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor.

CANADA INQUIRY ORDERS MINERS TO ACCEPT CUT

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 10.—(U.P.)—The findings of the royal commission, appointed by the Nova Scotia government to probe the coal mining industry, have been made public. The inquiry was conducted by Sir Andrew Rae Duncan of England, Maj. Humme Cronyn, London, Ont., and Dr. H. F. MacPherson, Antigonish, N. S., and lasted two months.

Among the findings are the following: That the miners should accept a ten per cent wage cut from the 1924 scale as demanded by the operators [the British Empire Steel corporation] a year ago; that there should be bi-annual wage revisions; that the company acknowledges the United Mine Workers of America; that the "check off" system of collecting union dues be abolished.

It is recommended that the corporation owned houses should be sold to the miners and the corporation's private police force should be abolished. A two year wage contract is suggested as a means to stabilize the industry.

Steamer Sinks Off Halifax; Crew Fights Way to Shore

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 10.—(U.N.I.)—In a heavy blizzard which swept the coast last night, the steamer Strathmore sank 12 miles from shore. It was learned here today. A life boat was launched and the captain of the vessel and thirteen members of the crew reached Isaac's harbor.

POSTAL CLERKS ASK CHANGE IN PENSION LAWS

Four hundred members of the Chicago Postoffice Clerks' union met yesterday in the Capitol building and adopted a resolution advocating a change in the postal pension laws. The newly elected officers of the union were installed by Alderman Oscar Nelson (44th), vice president of the Chicago Federation of Labor.

William Miller, president, explained that under present pension laws a clerk must be 65 years old before he is retired at maximum pension of $60 a month. He said the clerks favor enactment of a bill now before congress which would give them a $100 a month pension after 30 years' service.

MILK BOARD AGREES ON PLAN FOR COW TESTS

Expect to Complete Report Today.

Agreement by the state pure milk commission upon one plan of bringing all the Illinois herds under the tuberculin test, and another to finance the project, was announced by Dr. W. A. Evans, chairman of the commission, after another session had been held at the Brevoort hotel.

Only the finishing touches need to be placed upon the commission's final report on the milk situation, and it is expected that the report will be completed at today's session.

Urge Pasteurization, Too.

Of ten points enumerated in the general plan for tuberculosis eradication among the milk cows of the state, eight have been adopted by the commission. Of the remaining two points, one is practically settled, it being the promotion of pasteurization as a protection for the public while the eradication program is put into effect.

Both that point and the other, still at issue, could not be settled because of the absence of Dr. Herman N. Bunsen, commissioner of health, who will have to pass on the questions himself.

The second point in dispute is the time limit to be allowed the farmers in which they may put their herds under the tuberculin test.

April 1 Still Deadline.

Dr. Bunsen has steadfastly adhered to a decision to bar milk from diseased cattle beginning April 1, in accordance with the ordinance passed three weeks ago by the city council. If that date is maintained as the deadline, the farmers will be powerless to meet it, their plan, presented to the commission, requiring several years.

The commission yesterday agreed upon two other phases of the plan to bring about t. b. eradication. All farmers in the Chicago dairy district are to be required to sign petitions to have their herds placed under the test, with the condition that no tests be made unless and until the state and federal governments have funds with which to pay for the cattle slaughtered as tubercular.

FUND IS REDUCED

Washington, D. C., Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Government efforts to eradicate tuberculosis from the cattle herds of the United States will probably be retarded instead of accelerated during the next fiscal year unless steps are taken immediately to increase the sum set aside in the budget for the tuberculosis inspection of cattle.

Last year's allowance for inspection work, which will be used up before July 1, the end of the fiscal year, was $3,500,000. In the budget for the next fiscal year this amount has been cut to $3,000,000. Officials of the department of agriculture said today that unless this amount was increased it would be necessary to curtail next year's activities.

Dr. John R. Mohler, head of the bureau of animal husbandry, stated that as the result of the work carried on in the past, slightly more than one-sixth of all the cattle in the country had been inspected.

So many cattle owners are calling on the department for inspectors to take care of their herds, that there is no necessity for the department to conduct a campaign to arouse interest, Dr. Mohler said.

"We have exhausted the money allotted to Illinois out of last year's budget. Recently we have had to refuse scores of requests from Illinois dairymen."

$218,536.42 Has Been Paid

On Tribune Insurance Policies During the Past 10 Months

The Chicago Tribune Now Offers

100,000 of These Same Insurance Policies

Absolutely FREE!

Another morning newspaper, unable to secure home delivered circulation on the merits of the paper, announces that it will "give away" 50,000 of its accident insurance policies to those who subscribe for home delivery of the newspaper for one year at a cost of $10.80.

The Tribune is not in the insurance business; nor is it in the premium business. But, if Chicago newspaper readers want insurance with their newspapers, we are going to give them more insurance, better insurance and greater protection than can be obtained anywhere else.

So we make this offer:

We will give away absolutely free 100,000 Federal Life Insurance Co. $7,500.00 Travel Accident Insurance Policies—a total of $750,000.00 of accident insurance protection! A $7,500.00 policy, fully paid up for one year, will be given with a six months' subscription to The Daily Tribune, delivered to your home by carrier (6 days a week) at the regular price of 65 cents a month—a total of $3.90.

Compare the Offers:

To get another morning newspaper's policy will cost you a year's subscription $10.80

To get The Chicago Tribune's Policy costs you a six months' subscription at $3.90

And compare the policies! Note that in other newspaper policies Part I provides that you must be a "fare paying passenger." The Tribune policy covers you whether you are a "fare paying passenger" or not. Note the many provisions of The Tribune's policy for broader and more liberal protection!

During the past ten months $218,536.42 in real money has been paid on Tribune Insurance Policies. Such protection is now offered you absolutely FREE!

All that is necessary is to order The Daily Tribune delivered to your home by carrier, six days a week, at 65 cents a month.

This is a limited offer. It applies only to Home Delivery Orders in Chicago and suburbs. Only one policy will be issued to any one person. To secure one of these policies free of charge, mail the coupon below.

All those holding Tribune policies expiring while this offer is open shall be entitled to a renewal of their policies free of charge under the conditions outlined herein.

Send No Money! Simply Mail This Coupon!

correctly

Firstly

Be sure you use India Tea, or a blend containing India Tea.

Secondly

Use an earthenware teapot, and put into it one good teaspoonful of India Tea for each cup of tea required.

Thirdly

Be sure you pour the water into the teapot the moment it boils. Only fresh boiling water can bring out the true flavour of the tea. Hot water is none. Water that has been boiling for some time does not give the best results. This is important if you want a really good cup of tea.

Fourthly

Allow the tea to stand 5 minutes to infuse. Put a little cream or milk into each cup before pouring out the tea. It greatly improves the flavour. Then add sugar to taste.

Any retailer or store can supply you with India Tea or blends containing India Tea. He has no difficulty in getting it, as practically every wholesale distributor of tea in this district supplies India Tea. He will gladly get it for you—but—

BROOKHART MAY LOSE HIS SENATE SEAT, IS REPORT

Washington, D. C., Jan. 10.—[Special.]—Smith W. Brookhart may lose his seat as senator from Iowa in spite of reports the Republican regulars of the senate had decided to confirm him right to that place.

The senate subcommittee, composed of Republicans and Democrats, which has conducted the investigation has decided to make a unanimous report recommending that Daniel F. Steck, Democrat, who contested the certification of election given to Brookhart by the governor of Iowa, was the victor in the contest.

Mr. Brookhart took his seat in the senate in December, 1922, to fill a vacancy, and was declared re-elected in November, 1924. It is this second election that is being contested by Steck.

With an unanimous report to back Steck's claims, the full committee is expected to recommend to the senate that the seat which Brookhart holds belongs to his Democratic competitor.

It is understood by conceding Brookhart everything he claimed the subcommittee still found that Steck was elected by a majority of 57.

Oil Company Must Pay Mexico Strikers $1,000,000

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.] Mexico City, Jan. 10.—By resolution of the Supreme court, the Agula Oil company will have to pay two million pesos ($1,000,000) wages to strikers for their months of idleness, or legally guaranteed payment, before they will be permitted to resume work. This decision caused great rejoicing in labor union circles, as it is considered an important triumph for labor and an indication of future victories.

WIPE DEBTS OFF SLATE OF WORLD, CAILLAUX SAYS

LONDON, Jan. 10.—[AP.]—Writing on the financial situation in France in the new monthly publication, "The Banker," Joseph Caillaux, the former French finance minister, declared France will not be able to accomplish effective monetary reform until a solution is found for the problem of the allied debt.

"I am most positive," he continues, "that there will be no economic stability in the world so long as there remains a network of debts obliging nations to make transfer to other nations. The economic situation of Europe will be at the mercy of any cloud-burst."

"Only one formula can be allowed to live: Let the sponge be drawn across the slate on which our mutual obligations are inscribed. Great Britain is faithful to her tradition of generosity. I am certain that a change in the psychological attitude of the French will occur and that the psychology of Americans will change also."

$300,000 IN GIFTS TO INDIANA FOR PARK AT DUNES

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 10.—[AP.]—A total of $300,000 in gifts to be used by the state of Indiana in purchasing land for a new dunes park were announced today by Gov. Jackson. Following receipts of a check for $135,000 from the United States Steel corporation as the first payment on a donation of $250,000, the governor announced the state has accepted an offer of $50,000 for the Dunes fund from Julius Rosenwald of Chicago.

Receipts of the gifts will enable the state to pay for approximately 800 acres of land already purchased or on which it has options. The state has a fund of approximately $200,000, making a total of $500,000 available immediately. It is located between Gary and Michigan City on Lake Michigan.

Got Relief From Rheumatism at Last

Spent more than $100 for remedies before help was found

How an obstinate case of rheumatism was given relief is told by a man who suffered with rheumatic pain in the feet and back.

"I spent more than $100 for medicines in twenty-four years," he writes. "Then I used Sloan's Liniment and it gave me complete relief."

And it is amazing—the quick genuine comfort that Sloan's gives to even the most long-standing rheumatic aches.

No need to rub even. A little Sloan's rubbed lightly on—and a healing tide of fresh, germ-destroying blood begins tingling through the aching place. Before you can believe it, the pain, swelling and stiffness are relieved. Try it! All drugists—35 cents. Dr. Earl S. Sloan, 111 W. 18th St., New York.

TACNA VOTE MAY BE PUSHED AHEAD TO DATE IN MARCH

Chile's Delegate Back on Job; Cheerful.

BY GERALD MARTIN.

(Times Tribune Press Service.)
SANTIAGO, Chile, Jan. 10.—Augustin Edwards, Chilean delegate on the Tacna-Arica plebiscite commission, arrived from Santiago on the Santa Teresa this morning. He was accompanied by his legal advisor, Senor Claro and his son, Augustin, who is director of the Edwards newspapers.

Senor Edwards was cheerful and said the outlook is improving. During his visit to Santiago, he discussed the Chilean situation with the new administration, but refused to make any comments.

"My mouth is closed and my ears open," Senor Edwards said. "I came to listen to hear statements, not to make them, but I believe that things are better." He refused to make any statements regarding Gen. Pershing and up until a late hour today had not called on him.

Commission Meets Tuesday.
Senor Edwards said Gen. Pershing had called him that the commission will hold a meeting Tuesday. The Peruvian delegate, Senor Freyre, will also attend.

Meanwhile the election law committee has been active. It meets again Monday and it is possible everything will be settled so the plebiscite can be held in March, on a date about halfway between Gen. Pershing's wish that it be held in April and Senor Edwards' request that it be held in February.

However, it is believed that following the approval of the electoral regulations by the commission there will be considerable delay over the registration which promises many difficulties, owing to the fact that the only records available of residents in Tacna and Arica provinces are held by the church. The Peruvian bishop of Arequipa claims to hold a large number of these records, but Chile is expected to oppose the use of these.

Pershing Still on Job.

Gen. Pershing has not yet set a date for his return to Washington, but it is believed he will leave within the next few days. He is returning to the United States for necessary dental treatment which he cannot obtain here. Records which will supplement Chile's appeal to President Coolidge from Gen. Pershing's decisions will reach Washington about Jan. 15. Latest unofficial reports received here declare that Gen. Pershing, commanding the American troops in the Canal zone, may be appointed to take charge of the plebiscite during Gen. Pershing's absence. Gen. Pershing is well acquainted with the details of the Tacna-Arica trouble.

All South America Interested.
BUENOS AIRES, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Failure of arbitration by President Coolidge to settle the Tacna-Arica problem, would, in the opinion of Dr. Angel Gallardo, Argentine foreign minister, signify the destruction of the generous and sacred principle in the national life of the Americas which permits free peoples to resolve their occasional quarrels without recourse to arms.

Dr. Gallardo is quoted by the Buenos Aires newspaper Critica's correspondent at Montevideo, where the Argentine minister is spending the week-end, and his statement was based on reports cabled from the United States and published here today that Argentina, and Brazil had been consulted by the Washington government regarding their possible participation in efforts to settle the Tacna-Arica dispute.

The foreign minister emphasized that he was speaking on an absolutely conjectural basis, and he is quoted as saying that the participation of Argentina would be "limited to strengthening support of the arbitral award and extension of the arbitrator's authority."

Successful in the South—or in Chicago Frocks That Elect Transparencies and Laces

When Frocks are as delightfully feminine as these, and chic as well, they fit admirably into afternoon affairs and dinners here at home and into country club life if you are fortunate enough to be going south. The section now offers an extremely varied choice in models, novel fabrics, new pastel colorings—representative is the long sleeved Frock of Chinese embroidered net whose circular folds but half conceal bowknots of bois de rose metallic ribbon. $165. The first achieves a smartly simple bodice and four-cornered flutter of skirt by combining allover lace and chiffon. $145.

Supple Lightweight Furs Are Preferred

Summer ermine, as soft as a fabric, is supreme for afternoon and evening, while for the more hardy purposes of travel and motoring, the always smart racoon, the novelty dyed kid, leopard spotted or ermine tinted, and nutria belong with the most knowing wardrobes.

You will be pleased to learn that these goodlooking Furs and all others are priced lower in our January Clearance. The ermine sketched is now $795.

Dresses of Lovely Fabrics for Larger Women

Summer silks, jacquard crepes, printed crepes and chiffons, crepe Elizabeth, crepe du jour, and the lacy filet and Chinese net combinations now being selected for the South and here have been most skillfully adapted to the proportions of the larger figure, always with recognition of prevailing lines.

Gowns for daytime, dinner and evening are generously represented in the selection; sizes 40½ to 52½, $35 to $250.

Exceptional Values Are Many in the January Selling of New Winter Coats

At $57.50, for instance, you can choose excellent Coats of imported tweed with warm racoon collars; at $110, beautiful models of the new deep-piled fabrics; at $125, the half-shawl collar of rich fur is a feature. And these but suggest the wide selection, which includes many models in the regular sizes as well as those for the small and larger women.

Splendid values may still be had in the Reduced Coats from $35 up.

The New Woolen Fabrics Are Eloquent of Spring

Spring draws closer apace when one views the new Woolen Fabrics of soft and lovely tone, and as soft to the touch as to the eye. Novel weaves play an important part, adding greatly to the richness and style of the materials.

Linton Cumberland Homespuns emphasize variety of weave, and are designed in brilliant colors for Sports Coats. An achievement is a tweed for dresses, light and closely woven. Twills in unusual stripes suggest the faultless tailleur. Jerseys are to be found in the softest of pastel colorings as well as more practical street shades. Kashas are as popular as ever, but to do the many Rodier creations justice, one must see them. Truly you will find a visit to the Wool Fabric Section an inspiration.

The Bazar of Colonial Cretonnes Opens Today

A little of the South, it seems, has been transferred to the Cretonne Section, and will stay a month, as long as the Bazar of Colonial Cretonnes lasts. This Bazar has been arranged to display the amazing possibilities of the Colonial Cretonnes manufactured by Marshall Field & Company. From their lively and sunny patterns have been fashioned canopies, huge sun umbrellas, intriguing pillows, curtains, beach robes, and a host of other things, with many a suggestion for the South or the coming Summer.

DEMOCRATS O. K. SURTAX LIMIT-- WITH A PROVISIO

Insist on Cut in $22,000 to $100,000 Bracket.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Willingness to accept a 20 per cent maximum surtax rate, as provided in the house tax bill and approved by the administration, was announced today by Democratic members of the senate finance committee.

SENATOR SIMMONS
(American Press)

This offer, however, is made known by Senator Simmons (Dem., N. C.), ranking minority member of the committee, is conditioned upon the acceptance by the Republicans of proposed cuts in surtaxes on incomes between $20,000 and $100,000.

Normal tax rates and personal exemptions and other surtax rates, as carried in the house bill, are acceptable to the Democrats.

Means $500,000,000 Cut.

The Democrats also propose the repeal of the capital stock tax on corporations, which yields nearly $95,000,000 annually, and of the taxes on admissions and dues, which yield about $20,000,000. Adding to these two items a loss of $44,000,000 from the proposed further cut in surtaxes in the middle brackets, the Democratic program would mean a total tax reduction of about $500,000,000 instead of the $325,000,000 in the house bill.

To obtain the extra $175,000,000 they would apply to the sinking fund for the retirement of the public debt all amounts received from foreign governments. Payments from this source during the fiscal year 1927 will amount, according to the budget estimates, to about $175,000,000. By using this part of the sinking fund, the equivalent is left in the treasury and is made available for tax reduction.

Senator Simmons, in a formal statement, said that some features of the bill remain to be considered. His statement contained no reference to the minority policy on estate taxes, the movement for the repeal of which gained new impetus yesterday with a declaration by Senator Smoot (Rep., Utah), chairman of the finance committee, for their complete repeal.

May Not Take Partisan Stand.

Many Democrats also favor wiping out the house 80 per cent credit provision applicable to payments under estate inheritance tax laws. They may not take a partisan stand on this question.

DANIELS ARGUES FOR WORLD COURT, SAYING IT'S LEAGUE'S DOOR

Josephus Daniels, former secretary of the navy, delivering identical addresses yesterday before the Evanston Sunday afternoon club, in the First Methodist church, and the Wilmette Sunday evening club, in the First Congregational church, chose as the title of his talk "The Challenge to Christianity."

Mr. Daniels, portly, carefully combed, grayer and older than he was during the world war, regarded international peace as the sole solution to mankind's ills.

"The league of nations," he said, "is the only medium by which war can be outlawed and universal peace attained. The world court is only a step into the league, and the United States must join the court and then the league."

tion, which is the policy they expect to pursue on the matter of publicity. No reference was made to the tax on corporation earnings or on automobiles.

"We accept the normal tax rates, the personal exemptions, and the surtax rates provided in the house bill upon incomes up to and including $22,000," Senator Simmons declared. "But we do not accept the surtax rates on incomes between $22,000 and $100,000, and propose with respect to these to so adjust the brackets in the house bill as to provide for a reduction of $44,000,000 in the surtaxes of the incomes within these brackets."

"If this readjustment, in the interest of equalizing reductions made on incomes in excess of $22,000, is accepted by the committee or the senate, the minority will accept the maximum surtax rate of 20 per cent as prescribed in the house bill."

Seek Greater Reduction.

The average reduction made in the house bill on incomes between $10,000 and $20,000 is 25 per cent; upon incomes between $20,000 and $100,000 it is 50 per cent.

The schedule proposed by the minority will provide for an average reduction upon incomes up to $20,000 of 25 per cent, upon incomes from $20,000 to $100,000 of 24 per cent, and on the income above $100,000 of 50 per cent.

Senator Simmons, in stating that the minority will favor the repeal of the capital stock tax, said that this tax is "peculiarly discriminatory upon the weaker corporations" and, in addition, is distinctly a surtax.

He sprang a surprise by estimating that it will be possible to wipe out the entire war debt within thirty-two years, even though the Democratic plan of limiting the reduction is adopted. Democrats previously had figured it would take 40 years or more.

STATIONERY STORE ROBBED.

Burglars early yesterday entered the Monarch Stationery company's store at 183 West Lake street, and took merchandise valued at $200 and $240 in cash from the register.

CONVICT WITH 3 BROKEN PAROLES FACES NEW TRIAL

Steve Novak, identified on Saturday as one of three bandits who bound and gagged Mrs. Michael Billich, 2020 Bissell street, and her little daughter and escaped with $250, must stand trial on robbery and assault charges, despite the fact that he is under parole from Joliet penitentiary. It was announced yesterday by Capt. Thomas Condon of Hudson avenue police yesterday.

Novak, who has broken paroles three times, refused to name his accomplices. Novak was sent to the penitentiary on March 5, 1917, for larceny; again sentenced Jan. 5, 1920, for robbery, and paroled Dec. 15, 1923. ROAD BUILDERS' SHOW ON TODAY; THOUSANDS HERE

How they are built, much they cost, and why commonwealths should build them—are to be given the attention of thousands of engineers and state officials gathering in Chicago to attend this week's convention and road show of the American Road Builders' association.

Plans Canada to Mexico Highway.

One of the principal topics to come before the convention is the proposed building of an international roadway from the heart of Canada through the middle western United States to Mexico City. Canadian engineers are to discuss the project with the Mexican officials and American road builders.

Senor Pascual Luna Y Parra, president of the national roads commission of Mexico, heads his country's delegation, which includes also Senor Ignacio Aviles, chief mechanical engineer, Senor Jose Cuevas, chief engineer, and Carlos Hammeken, assistant general superintendent of the commission.

Among others who arrived yesterday were Gov. Martin of Florida; Thomas H. McDonald, chief of the federal bureau of public roads; Maj. Lynn G. Adams, superintendent of the Pennsylvania state police; C. M. Pinckney, chief engineer of New York City; James H. MacDonald, former senator from Connecticut, and Frank T. Rogers, state highway commissioner of Michigan.

Charles M. Schwab, steel magnate, is to arrive Wednesday, when he will address the road builders at a dinner.

Notables to Address Convention.

The convention is to be addressed tomorrow by Gov. Small, Mayor Dever, C. H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central railroad, and by William H. Connell, president of the American Road Builders' association.

Following the opening session the convention is to be divided into two sections, one for a discussion of engineering problems and the other for consideration of constructors' problems.

The engineers will discuss local and international phases of highway finance, location, city routing, safety, future development of traffic and vehicles and pavement selection, recent development in highway materials and machinery, highway operation and maintenance, snow removal, and surface treatment of roads.

The constructors' sessions will treat with contracting finance, estimating, cost accounting, operating methods, grading, merits of handling materials, standardization of equipment, technical building of modern highways and public works specifications.

General sessions also will be held. Experts in all the city, county, state and federal government road departments are to address the convention, which is expected to bring to a focus the great needs of the nation for more, wider and better roads.

HOLD TWO GIRLS AFTER SHOTS FLY AT WILD PARTY

Two girls were being held by Warren avenue police last night pending an investigation of a mystery shooting at their apartment at 2443 West Monroe street. Two young men, said to have fired the shots in the course of a wild party in the apartment, are being sought.

The girls, Zelma Herper, 24 years old, and Helen Geller, 25, were found crouched in the corner of the bedroom upon arrival of police. Five of the seven shots fired lodged in the frame-work of the apartment door, police discovered. Much liquor had been drunk by the celebrators before neighbors called police, it was said.

Extolling the Woman who wears the Gown over the Gown Itself!

THE TAILORED WOMAN makes the kind of things that by their graceful line and shrewd proportion make the woman who wears them more important than the gown itself. We taboo the gaudy, we abolish the bizarre, we have nothing to do with the fantastic, but we are shrewdly capable with lines. That is why you'll cherish a Tailored Woman frock. That is why its welcome in your wardrobe will not soon wear out. Evening gowns, coats, knitted frocks, hats, suits, afternoon dresses.

The smartly belted two-piece frock of wool jersey comes in delightful shades of bois de rose, powder blue, green, beige and white. $48.50.

Cheery indeed should her greeting be in this charming two-piece frock of crepe de chine in rose, wood rush or green lily. $68.50.

OSAGE SLAYINGS LEAD GRAND JURY TO BRIBE SCENT

U. S. Ex-Marshall Demands a Hearing.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 10.—(AP)—Rumors that a $10,000 bribe was paid for the failure of previous investigations into the alleged conspiracy of death in the Osage Indian country several years ago probably will be brought to the attention of the federal grand jury here tomorrow.

Alva McDonald, former United States marshal for western Oklahoma, demands to be heard by the jury.

The former marshal said he was ready to waive all immunity and that all he desired was a hearing.

Should he go before the jury it would delay temporarily the investigation as planned of the alleged operations of a band of conspirators held responsible for the deaths of a number of Osage Indians and others.

Two indictments were returned yesterday in the jury's first report. They charge W. K. Hale, "king of the Osage hills," and John Ramsey, a cowboy-farmer, with murder in connection with the death of Henry Roan, an Indian who was shot to death. Hale was named beneficiary of Roan's $25,000 life insurance policy.

BUNDESEN WARNS AGAINST CARBON MONOXIDE POISON

Warning against carbon monoxide, the gas generated by automobile engines and let off through the exhaust, was again issued by Health Commissioner Herman N. Bundesen in his weekly bulletin. The commissioner points out that eleven persons died in Chicago in 1924 and twelve in 1925 in this way.

"Each year," the bulletin reads, "we hear of persons being found dead in their garages or while working under a machine with the engine idling. The answer is 'carbon monoxide poisoning.'"

As to symptoms: If while working or standing near an automobile engine you feel coming on an indefinite illness accompanied by throbbing of blood vessels get out into the fresh air as fast as you can."

NOTED U. OF C. ASTRONOMIST TO GIVE LECTURE

Prof. Forest Ray Moulton, head of the department of astronomy in the University of Chicago, an international figure in the world of science, will lecture tomorrow evening at Orchestra hall on "Recent Astronomical Explorations in Space and Time."

Prof. Moulton is one of the leaders in his field and during the world war won high honors and recognition of his help to the cause of the United States and the allies by his work on ballistics. He is also the author of several noted works on astronomy. The lecture tomorrow night will be illustrated by photographs obtained with the greatest telescopes of modern times. Among other pictures those of the moon's craters will appear on the screen a foot in diameter.

Christmas Fall Into Hot Water Is Fatal to Baby

The Christmas morning fate of Robert Heidenblut, 18 months old, 5649 Alameda street, was to fall into a pail of scalding water left on the floor of the kitchen in the Heidenblut home. The child died yesterday at Grant hospital.

Taxi Driver Recovering from Bandit Battle Wound

Meynard Weintraub, taxicab chauffeur, suffering from a bullet wound at Lake View hospital following a gun battle on Saturday night with Julius Parajko, 3411 Station street, who, it is alleged, tried to rob him, after hiring his cab, will recover, according to physicians yesterday. In the fighting Weintraub also wounded Parajko. After the shooting Weintraub held Parajko prisoner in his cab and drove to the nearest Yellow Cab company garage.

Oriental Rugs

Should not be bought on price alone.

The price ticket on an Oriental Rug may mean much—or it may mean very little. The rug may be an amazing value, or it may be marked far above its real worth. After all, it's the quality that counts.

Unfortunately their ever increasing popularity has induced some weavers to turn out inferior rugs to meet the demand for low prices. But naturally such rugs cannot give the great pleasure nor years of "service" which one always gets from a rug of quality and character.

We feel it is a mistake for anyone to buy such rugs—consequently we won't even handle them.

Which is one reason why so many people buy their rugs only at this store. They have learned that any rug they get here can be depended upon—hence they buy here with Confidence, whether they know Oriental Rug values or not.

Yet it is a fact—which you can quickly prove for yourself by making comparisons—that Pushman's prices are usually less than those prevailing elsewhere for rugs of similar quality.

Combing Won't Rid Hair of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid Arvon apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning most of not all of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and itching of the scalp will stop at once and your hair will be fluff, lustre, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid Arvon at any drug store and it never fails to do the work.

14 BIRMINGHAM PARISHES REBEL AGAINST BISHOP

Fear Serious Split in the Church of England.

BY DON SKENE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
[Copyright, 1926, by The Chicago Tribune.]
LONDON, Jan. 10.—A serious split in the Church of England is feared as a result of a conflict at Birmingham. The Anglo-Catholic, or the high church, faction has defied Dr. E. W. Barnes, bishop of Birmingham, who now threatens to remove fourteen vicars of his diocese who have led the revolt against his rulings.

The bishop, who is a noted modernist leader in the Church of England, and trained as scientist and mathematician at Cambridge university, has denounced the religious theories which declare the actual body and blood of Christ are found in the sacrament. He has forbidden the reservation of the host with the accompanying service of adoration.

Fourteen Parishes Rebel.
This order has resulted in a breach between the high and low church members, which is attracting the anxious attention of the churchmen throughout the country. Anglo-Catholics outside of Birmingham urged clergymen of the Birmingham diocese to defy the bishop, pledging the financial support of the English Church union. Consequently, Birmingham high church men in fourteen parochial councils withdrew their support of the diocesan board of finance and declared their churches financially independent.

Most of the revolting parishes are poor, but they have appealed for funds to make them self-supporting. About $18,000 already has been contributed. Financial independence, however, does not mean freedom from the bishop's rulings.

Assistant Clergy Refused Licenses.
The bishop has refused to grant licenses to the assistant clergy in the parishes where the holy sacrament is publicly reserved. He also has refused to ordain two Anglo-Catholic candidates to the holy orders.

John D. Rockefeller Jr. Ill with Cold; Can Whisper

[New York, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—John D. Rockefeller Jr. is ill with a cold. He has temporarily lost his voice and can only whisper. He has been confined to the house for the last four or five days.

SLEEP WALKER FALLS 3 STORIES; EXPECTED TO DIE

John J. Magee, cashier for the Great Lakes Transit corporation, was probably fatally injured yesterday when he plunged from a window of the Magee apartments on the third floor at 1519 Olive avenue. According to his wife, Catherine, he was a somnambulist and she expressed the belief he walked from an open window when asleep. Mrs. Magee said they retired at an early hour. Shortly after 1 o'clock she awakened and found Mr. Magee was not in his bed. Going to the window she saw his form on the pavement below. His skull was fractured and three ribs and his right arm broken. He was taken to the Swedish Covenant hospital.

ALCOHOLISM KILLS WOMAN.
Alcoholism was believed by the police to have been the cause of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Murphy, 55 years old, 413 West street. Her husband, James, said she had been drinking heavily.

Boy, 16, Accidentally Shoots Self in Groin

Reuben Johnson, 457 West Division street, yesterday became a victim of the magnetism that revolves hold for all normal sixteen year old lads. He accidentally shot himself in the groin and was taken to the County hospital in a serious condition after his father had rushed him to the office of Dr. Robert Lande. The boy walked with his father to the physician's office. When the latter had examined him he called the police, who rushed the boy to the hospital.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Jan. 10.—A resolution calling upon the anthracite mine workers to call a general strike to call for all workers employed in anthracite mines, including the anthracite mine workers, was passed by the United Mine Workers of America at a meeting late last night. The calling out of a general strike is urged as a means to the end of the present strike.

POLISH FINANCES GROWING BETTER, U.S. EXPERT FINDS

Year's Work Necessary to Stabilize Country.

BY CASIMIR MARKIEWICZ.

[Chicago Tribune Staff Writer.]
WARSAW, Jan. 10.—Prof. Edwin Walter Kemmerer, economist of Princeton, N. J., before leaving Warsaw, where he has been studying the financial crisis, said in an interview today that he feels more optimistic "as regards Poland's financial crisis than when I arrived. I realize fully that a year's work will be necessary before conditions are stabilized. I find no evidence of danger of a communist revolution, since bolshevik propaganda does not seem to affect Poland.

Finds Polish Debt Small.

"From a financial standpoint, I find that Poland's public debt is small per capita, compared with the rates of all the advanced countries of the world. I believe the protracted financial depression is due greatly to the unduly exaggerated lack of confidence shown by the Polish people in their own finances, which is reflected abroad.

"The measures taken by the government to restrict the issue of money, as well as the importation and consumption of articles of luxury, and the cuts in the budget for 1926, are eminently wise. The monthly budgeting, as drafted by the government, resulting in the cutting down of expenses by 25 per cent, opens good prospects.

Reserve Should Be Used.

"I believe the reserve requirements of the Bank of Poland are too rigid, since the financial reserve is meant to be called upon in times of difficulty, and not to be looked at. One of the main steps the government should take is to reduce the circulation of treasury notes, which is too high."

Is Found Dead in Bed

Dr. Jessie Robertson, 63 years old, of 4301 Ellis avenue, for twenty years a physician on the south side, was found dead in her bed yesterday morning, by Mrs. Mary Brown, who lives in the flat above her. Death came from heart disease, it was said. She had been ill for a year.

REPORT KIP WILL TRY FOR DIVORCE IN CONNECTICUT

White Plains, N. Y., Jan. 10.—[Special.]—It was reported today that L. o n a r d Kip Rhineland, who lost the suit to annul his marriage to Alice Beatrice Jones Rhineland on the ground she failed to tell him she was a Negro, has gone to Connecticut to establish a residence so he can sue for a divorce. In Connecticut it is necessary to establish a residence for one year before a divorce action is filed.

Lee Parsons Davis, counsel for Mrs. Rhineland, said it would make no difference if Rhineland had gone out of the state, as Mrs. Rhineland's action for a separation on the ground of abandonment could be brought by serving him by publication. Mrs. Rhineland declined to discuss her husband, saying it did not make much difference to her where he was, as he had to pay her alimony just the same.

BOY HIRED FOR CRIME, HE SAYS; NAB EMPLOYERS

Arrested near De Kalb yesterday on a charge of automobile theft, John Maek, 16 years old, 1648 South Throop street, told authorities that he had been hired, at a salary of $30 monthly, to participate with a man and a woman in a series of crimes.

Highway police pursued the couple, traveling in another machine, into Rockford and arrested them. They gave the names of Mrs. Anna Sellers, 50 years old, and John Corrigan, aged 37, both of 2900 West Monroe street, and claimed to have been married recently.

cently. Police records show that Mrs. Sellers served a term of two and a half years in a Connecticut prison in 1921 and a term at the Bridewell in 1918.

Woman, 80, Succumbs to Injuries Received in Fire

Mrs. Augusta Semper, 80 years old, 2647 West Superior street, died at the county hospital yesterday of burns and smoke in a fire at her home Saturday night. An overheated stove set fire to the woodwork, starting the blaze.

Firemen Injured When Falling Wall Hits Them

Several firemen were injured yesterday when fragments of a falling wall at a fire at 1657-61 Blue Island avenue struck them. The blaze practically destroyed the three story building in which it raged for several hours. Capt. James Hoxey, chief of the Eighth battalion, was slightly injured. Lieut. Charles Schroeder was cut and bruised. And firemen Henry Reese, Frank Steffel, Joseph Marek, and Rex Roach were so seriously injured they were taken to nearby hospitals.

Darrow on Divorce

Famous lawyer reveals the secret reasons for divorces that are seldom told in court—he urges easier laws to diminish suffering and even cut down the number of murders.

COME behind the scenes if you want to learn the real causes of divorce—the secrets that husbands and wives never divulge on the witness stand. The accusations made in open court—the charges of unfaithfulness or cruelty or desertion—are only the final symptoms, required by law, that a marriage has failed. They are the legal reasons for divorce; the human reasons are concealed.

Let Clarence Darrow, the noted criminal lawyer and student of human nature, who has saved upward of sixty men from the noose, tell you those secrets of shattered marriages. Mr. Darrow is more than a lawyer; he is a philosopher whose long experience with human troubles and frailties has given him a rare understanding of men and women.

Mr. Darrow has already expressed his views on intolerance and crime in such national dramas as the Tennessee evolution case and the Loeb-Leopold murder trial in Chicago. Now he asks for clemency toward those who have failed in marriage.

Read what Mr. Darrow has to say in this week's Liberty—out today.

WORLD REVOLT HOPE OF RUSSIA, BUKARIN SAYS

Bolshevik State Cannot Be Developed Alone.

(Copyright, 1926, by the New York Times)
MOSCOW, Jan. 10.—Nikolai Bukarin, a radical member of the soviet general committee, in a long statement today sums up the issues raised in the recent communist party fight. Dwelling upon the doubts voiced by opposition leaders regarding the possibility of socializing a single backward country like Russia, he declares soviet Russia is not guaranteed against restoration without an international revolution, but will not perish because of technical economic backwardness, since her economic growth is a steady process.

"If they ask us," Bukarin said, "can there everlastingly exist a situation where, in the absence of international revolution, we would quietly move forward, we would answer negatively."
"We occupy a sixth part of the globe and are very weak. Five-sixths are occupied by our enemies, and, incidentally, strong adversaries like the United States and Great Britain, with their colossal military and technical might."

Calls Conflict Inevitable.
"Will they ever try to strangle us or will they until the end of the century view us calmly, blessing our existence?"

"Clearly the conflict is inevitable some time. Can we say confidently that we will win such a struggle? If the western working class side the capitalists against us, naturally not."
"To a marked extent we have existed heretofore because the working class in all countries have held the bourgeoisie back. But for this probably we would have gone under like our Hungarian comrades, probably collapsed in the 1918-1921 siege."

"Safe Only Through Revolt."
"Undoubtedly," Bukarin continued, "if the international revolution does not develop there is no guarantee that the capitalists will not devour us, that we will not be strangled. Hence our course for the international revolution from the viewpoint of the international proletarian movement."

CZECHS MAY ASK LEAGUE TO PROBE PLOT IN HUNGARY

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
LONDON, January 10.—Czechoslovakia has entered the arena in connection with the Hungarian bank note scandal, according to a communication of the Sunday Times, who says the Czechoslovakian government is taking the initiative in approaching the other powers of the little coalition with a view to a joint suggestion to the league of nations to make an inquiry into possible political motives behind the plan to forge 20,000,000,000 Czech francs. Further arrests are announced from Budapest and the government has decided to disavow "Awakening Magyars," an extremely powerful organization which has been carrying on nationalist activities in Hungary.

ADDRESS K L 137, CHICAGO TRIBUNE

Greater Than Ever

ONE of the last published expressions of Frank A. Munsey was a statement regarding the advertising lineage in The New York Sun during the month of November.

That statement was so characteristic, so clear and concise an expression of the ideals controlling The Sun that it is reprinted in full below.

To the perpetuation of those ideals the present management of The Sun is unreservedly committed and pledges itself to their completest fulfillment.

It is for the same reasons expressed by Mr. Munsey that The Sun continued in December to add to its record another month of leadership, thus completing a period of six consecutive months in each of which it has published a greater volume of advertising than any other New York evening newspaper.

The Sun published in December 1,571,906 agate lines of total advertising—leading the second New York evening newspaper by 132,656 lines.

The Sun's advertising gain in December—a gain of 223,710 lines—was larger than the combined gains of all the other New York evening newspapers.

During the last six months of 1925 The Sun published 7,693,384 lines of total advertising—leading the second New York evening newspaper by 388,004 lines.

The Sun had a larger gain during the last six months of 1925 than all the other New York evening newspapers combined.

Month after month and year after year National Advertisers use far more space in The Sun than in any other New York evening newspaper.

Reprinted from The Sun of December 5, 1925

Character, Substance, Courage, Quality.

THAT'S the reason for The Sun's position in New York as a great newspaper—a home newspaper for home reading.

That's the reason why The Sun leads all other evening newspapers in New York, both in the quality and quantity of its advertising.

That's the reason why The Sun carried in November 1,541,154 lines of advertising, leading all other evening newspapers in New York by 58,664 lines.

That's the reason why The Sun for five months straight has carried more advertising than any other New York evening newspaper.

That's the reason why The Sun has made a larger gain in the last five months than all the other New York evening newspapers put together.

That's the reason why The Sun's gain in advertising for November this year is 334,424 lines over November last year.

That's the reason why in the last five months The Sun has gained more in advertising in the six working days of the week than any other newspaper in New York, morning or evening, has gained.

The Sun is building right, building with full appreciation of a newspaper's responsibility to the community

ALLEGED REUTERS TWIST U. S. NEWS IN FAR EAST

Yankees Critical of British Press Service.

BY JOHN POWELL.
[Copyright, 1926, by The Chicago Tribune.]
SHANGHAI, Jan. 10.—Considerable stir has been caused by an editorial in the China Press, an American paper here, charging Reuters, a British news service, with the suppression of news references to America's Chinese policy in reports on addresses of President Coolidge to congress and Secretary of State Kellogg's recent New York speech on the American policy. Monopoly of News.
The editorial says that Reuters enjoys a practical monopoly in supplying foreign news to the Chinese press and for a considerable period deliberately has been suppressing news of the views of the American policy with regard to China.
It calls attention to the fact that both the American President and the secretary of state devoted considerable attention to the American policy toward China in addresses delivered on Dec. 14 and Dec. 20, but Reuters' report eliminated the references.
Alleges Reports Twisted.
The paper also charges that Reuters' deliberate twisting of reports of congressional action with regard to the British rubber monopoly is leading the people in the far east to believe the whole American protest is a huge joke and not serious. It says Reuters only sends reports to the Chinese papers which are critical of the American policy, giving the Chinese a false impression of the American policy with respect to China's national aspirations.

VESUVIUS BLOWS OFF CONE; SPOUTS STEAM AND ROCKS

NAPLES, Jan. 10.—[N. U.]—The explosive, eruption activity of Mount Vesuvius is increasing. The top of the lava cone within the main crater has been blown off by the force of the surging pressure beneath. Thick pillars of green, yellowish smoke rise from the crater and gradually turn white or gray. This column of smoke bears aloft cinders and sizable rocks. At brief intervals steam geysers spout in the crater, providing a magnificent display of charming light whose lurid glow is a tremendous spectacle at night.

Two long black streams of lava are flowing in slow spirals from the northern to the western side of the cone. However, a far more extensive eruption would be necessary, according to the authorities, before the crater would overflow and permit the lava to roll down the mountain sides.

PART OF GERMAN SOCIALISTS VOTE TO BACK CABINET

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
BERLIN, Jan. 10.—The Hessian branch of the German Socialist party, under former Chancellor Scheide-mann's leadership, tonight formally espoused the cause of a big coalition in the reichstag. This development may result in the abandonment of the socialist opposition to a cabinet, based on the strong parliamentary amalgamation, favored by President Von Hindenburg.

Assembled in caucus all day Catholic center members of the reichstag and Prussian diet reaffirmed tonight their demand for reestablishment of a solid coalition of republican parties. There is now considerable likelihood of a combination of parties, which will make possible the selection of a cabinet.

Try SOLITE

(REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.)

A Perfect Gasoline Today!

You will be delighted with the amazing performance of your engine—especially if you have been using "so-called" high-test gasoline.

For, while Solite is light, volatile and fast, it must not be confused with "so-called" high-test gasolines.

Solite is better.

It gives you every element of service that you would expect from a "so-called" high-test gasoline, but in addition it gives you power—because Solite drives the piston the full stroke under power.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has achieved this remarkable result by reason of its famous cracking processes.

Solite is a cracked gasoline. We guarantee its uniformity because it is made to meet exact specifications. Its worth is inherent—it is built-in—there is no guess work in its manufacture—it is dependable.

Fill your tank with Solite today. Your engine will start instantly—it will get away smoothly—it will accelerate rapidly and eagerly—and develop amazing speed.

Solite is made for the man who demands this quicker action and is willing to pay a little more to get it—3c more per gallon.

If you require a maximum of power at a minimum cost, then we recommend our famous economy fuel—Red Crown Gasoline.

Late deliveries result in reduced prices on several hundred suits and overcoats that run true to Ogilvie & Jacobs fame for style and worth. These smart clothes must be sold at once to gain space for Spring lines soon to arrive. They are reduced one-fifth: a real saving on quality clothes of up-to-date distinction in style and fabric.

Gentlemen's Coats
Reduced 20%

Usters and slip-ons, many imported from Kenneth Durward, London. Tubular coats, high in young men's favor. Chesterfield coats for dress wear. Spring top-coats, too—an unusual attraction.

Gentlemen's Suits
Reduced 20%

Suits that Americanize the smart conservatism of London styling. Most are adapted for year 'round wear. Restricted fabrics, many imported, assure you distinction in the suit of your choice.

Early choice is advised, while assortments are at their best

When Youth Weds Age It's Usually Age That Profits

BY DORIS BLAKE.

Betty, 23, finds herself engaged to a widower past 50. He has a son and daughter older than she, both of whom are married and set up in their own establishments. The widower is wealthy, of course. There isn't anything Betty cannot have if she marries the man. He has promised her a trip around the world for the honeymoon. Betty has a young brother, 17, who will be sent to college by the widower if she marries him. A young sister with a fine voice will be given the right training in music. Betty would be able to do things for her mother and father that she would like to do. But there is a young man of 24 who loves Betty. He pleads with her not to go through with the marriage to the older man, to which we add our plea, for Betty tells us she enjoys being with the young man more than with any one else. They "have such fun together."

A trip to Coney Island with one you can have fun with is worth 20 trips around the world with a man who can mean little more to a young girl than a Society for the Encouragement of Family Luxuries. A college career for the brother, a musical course for the sister, is a wondrous luxury if it is to cost Betty a loveless marriage, if youth is to be deprived of its right to youth. Let brother, if he must go to college, find a way for himself as thousands of worth while boys have done. Let him work his way through. He will come out a better man for it. Let sister find some other way of getting her musical education. If father and mother cannot afford it, sister can work and save her money as many another girl has done in the pursuit of her great ambition. There is no law of humanity to rule a sacrifice of one of a family that other members thereof may profit. Neither is there a law of compensation for it.

There is nothing more important to the whole scheme of life than that two young people in love should marry and bring healthy children into the world. There is nothing more important in marriage than that those two find joy in companionship. December may be able to give many things, but not with the wisest stretch of the imagination can one see it giving the exuberance, the spirit of youth, or those gorgeous hours of true companionship upon which the really ideal marriage is built.

Foolish to Quarrel.

"Dear Miss Blake: My friend and I love each other dearly, but we quarrel over nothing. Should I continue going with this fellow? Blondeville." Constant disagreements will soon wear away your friendship. How foolish to quarrel when you haven't the slightest reason, as you admit.

Playhouse to See 'Rag of Junior

BY NANCY

Never have I seen such a wildly enthusiastic crowd that greeted Raggedy Andy at today morning's show. The crowd was so large that the Raggedy Andy show was held in the alleyway, and the Raggedy Andy show was held in the alleyway, and the Raggedy Andy show was held in the alleyway.

I was surprised to find that Raggedy Andy, who had returned from his trip, had a very different look. He was dressed in a very different way, and he was dressed in a very different way, and he was dressed in a very different way.

Also in the audience was Mrs. Thorne, who had returned from her trip. She was dressed in a very different way, and she was dressed in a very different way, and she was dressed in a very different way.

One of the most interesting events in the city today was the wedding of Miss Judith Drake and Mr. Leslie Danes. The wedding was held at the home of Mrs. Danes, and the wedding was held at the home of Mrs. Danes, and the wedding was held at the home of Mrs. Danes.

Playhouse Is Packed to See 'Raggedy Ann' of Junior Leaguers

BY NANCY R.

Never have I seen such a packed and wildly enthusiastic house as the one that greeted Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy at the Playhouse Saturday morning. Youngsters overflowed into the playhouse to see the old-fashioned Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy, who were dressed in the costumes of the Junior League play, and were the work of Janet Pauling, and are stunning. Willie Belle, 7 years old and dusky of hue, "did her stuff" with perfect poise, to the delight of her audience. I imagine it was really she who inspired the Loonies in the play to do the Charleston throughout their scene. And each member in the talented young cast romped away with her share of the applause and laughter.

I was surprised to see Mrs. Arthur Ryerson there, as I hadn't heard that she had returned from her eastern trip. She was playing escort to one of her delightful flock of grandchildren, little Susan Clarke, who is here on a visit and who went to see "Raggedy Ann" wrapped in an enchanting coat of shaggy white fur, caught at the shoulder with a red boutonniere, a gift which her adoring grandmother brought her from the Orient, I suspect. Mrs. Ryerson (who still keeps up her reputation for entertaining interesting and celebrated persons from all over the world) was hosted yesterday by Lady Sybil Colefax, who stopped over for a day in Chicago en route to California, where she will visit the Dick Tubbins for a fortnight. After that she is to spend a few days with the Douglas Fairbanks (I hear that's the most thrilling part of her whole trip, as far as Lady Colefax is concerned) and then she'll come back to see Mrs. Ryerson.

Also in the audience at the Playhouse was Mrs. Thomas W. Hinde—her daughter, Sarah, who is one of the best of the Junior League players, had the leading role—with another daughter, Mrs. John Andrew King. From Mrs. Hinde I learned that the Tommy De Longe (Mrs. De Longe was Elizabeth Hinde) are the proud parents of a lovely baby girl born a week ago today at the Presbyterian hospital, quite a finishing touch to the new and charming house in Lake Forest.

Day's News in Society

One of the most important post-war weddings in St. Louis, of interest to Chicago, will be the nuptials of Miss Judith Dana, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Dana, to Ward Thorne, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ward Thorne of 1200 Lake Shore drive. The wedding and reception are to take place at the Dana residence in Brentwood. Mrs. Thorne is to take her bride abroad on their honeymoon.

Many social affairs are planned to-day for Mrs. Mason Day of New York and Paris, who is the guest of Mrs. William Kirk, who, as Mrs. Elizabeth Day, made her American debut as a concert singer at the Blackstone theater yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Wallace Kirk of 26 Cedar street will give a dinner for Mrs. Day tonight at her residence and at noon the guest will meet stars from the Chicago Civic Opera and other Chicago artists at a luncheon at the Cordon arranged by Miss Hannah Butler. This luncheon is given today instead of Tuesday as formerly announced.

Washington Porter II, of 4043 Lake Park avenue has issued invitations for a Spanish costume fiesta on next Saturday evening.

The Junior Friends of Art will meet at the Blackstone tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Miss Julie Manierre will sing, and there will be talks by Dr. Hans Zbinden on "The Creative Forces of the Human Soul," and by Miss Victoria Towell on "The Reinhardt Movement in Dramatic Art."

Benjamin B. Felix of the Sovereign Hotel gave a dinner there yesterday for Mr. and Mrs. Will Hartford Lyford of Wheaton, preceding the Lyford's departure for Washington, D. C. After a few days in the capital, Mr. and Mrs. Lyford will go to New York City to visit their son, Calhoun Lyford, Mrs. George R. Nichols Jr. and her father, Dr. Frank Billings, have arrived at Palm Beach, Fla., and are occupying the Villa Flores on Sunset avenue, which they have taken for the season. Other arrivals last week were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hubbard of Chicago, who have spent many winters at Palm Beach. The Hon. Milton Astley and Mrs. Astley have taken one of Lady Lauderdale's cottages on Australian avenue for the season. They are popular members of the winter colony and expect to entertain their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alister H. McCormick later.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Drum of 32 Bellevue place and their daughter and son, Miss Charlotte Drum and John Drum, are spending some time at Bermuda. Also at Bermuda are Mr. and Mrs. George F. Haskell, who are on their honeymoon. Mrs. Haskell was Miss Freda New Gross before her marriage. Mr. Joseph F. Haskell gave a luncheon for Admiral Wills of the U. S. S. Pittsburgh and his staff, followed by a reception for 50 guests, yesterday at their residence between Monte Carlo and Niles, France. Dr. and Mrs. Corant plan to return to Chicago for the late summer.

The Charles Edward Browns of 2439 Lake View avenue are as yet undecided as to their plans for winter vacation. They have considered going either to the Riviera or to Florida, but as their young daughter, Betty, has the whooping cough, they will probably have to stay in Chicago for the next few weeks.

Mrs. Julia F. Brower of 260 Pearson street has departed for a month's motor trip through California.

Dinners to Precede Play.

There are to be several informal dinner parties before the performance of George Arliss in "Old English" this evening, for which the Drama League has taken a block of seats. Among those who are to attend are Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Field, Mr. and Mrs. William Shippen Jenks, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Urie Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Farwell, and Mrs. Albert M. Kales.

NEW YORK.—[Special correspondence.]—Fashions for men—at least, for young men from four to six—indicate that waist lines are coming back. Perhaps bread and milk will have to be cut from the menu this year. For if this tendency becomes a rule, one will have to have a waist line to indicate.

In Central park at the fashionable hour for the youngest set—8 o'clock in the morning of course—no less than three coats were observed on modish 4 year olds with belts placed quite high. The young ladies accompanying these gay bloods were more apt to have unbelled coats flaring from the shoulders. One or two children achieved an ensemble effect by repeating the fur trimming of the coat on the hat.

The model affected by the young man about town sketched today is obviously designed for resort wear. Here again one catches that indication of a high waist line. It is achieved by the position of the two buttons which shorten this single breasted top coat. One interesting pocket, deep enough for a large collection of tope and marbles, finishes this delightful Farland creation. The large leather hat accompanying it is of trireme inspiration.

As for the little girl's sport coat, the cape back model, the fared tie, and the straight line variety seem to be emphasized by some collections and deep pockets, if any, prevail.

Sunny Urges Own Edifice for Old Central Church

D. E. Sunny, president of the board of trustees of old Central church, speaking yesterday at Orchestra hall at a service in observance of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the church, suggested an ambition for the future energies of the congregation an appropriate edifice in which to conduct the services held for so long in Orchestra hall.

Founded in 1876 by Dr. David Swing, the Central church has had during fifty years only three other pastors, Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis and Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus, who occupied that position for twenty years before being succeeded by the incumbent, Dr. Frederick F. Shannon, who came to Chicago in January, 1920.

HARRY COOPER,
21, WINS $10,000
L. A. GOLF OPEN

Clips 5 Strokes Off Par on Last 18.

BY GEORGE SHAFER.
(Chicago Tribune Staff Service.)
Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Harry Cooper, a chunky 21 year old professional from Dallas, Tex., drove his way to the major prize of $10,000 in the Los Angeles $10,000 golf tournament today. Pressed to heights of excitement which cut strokes off par in the 17 holes play, Cooper came in for a total of 279, and a gallery of 2,000 roared Sunday afternoon for a refined version of the Alamo yet when Cooper sank an eagle 3 for his last hole of the day on the eighteenth hole.

Half the credit for Cooper's victory goes to the second place man, George Von Elm, amateur, of Los Angeles. Von Elm scored 282 for his three days' play. Von Elm was up on Cooper at the end of the morning's eighteen holes, shooting five consecutive birdies and establishing a new course record of 81. Cooper equaled his record of 87 this afternoon.

Drives Spell Victory.

The Texas lad's tremendous drives had no little part in his victory. He was able to use his iron on the fairways, while practically all the rest of the field had to resort to the woods, losing in accuracy to pick up distance.

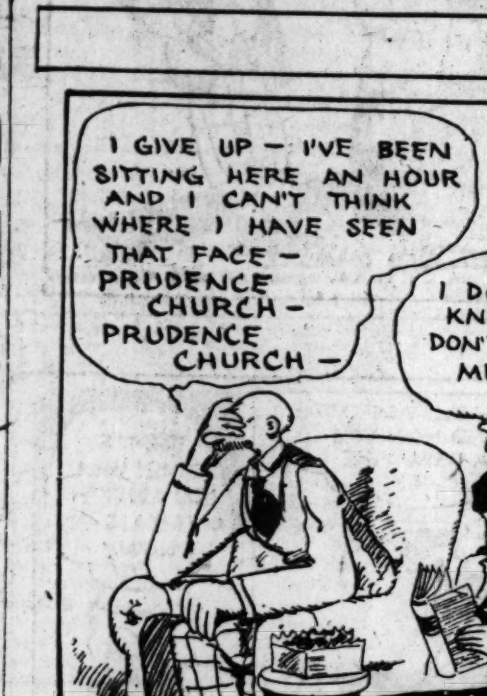

Cooper's iron versus Von Elm's mickiey demonstrated the route to victory after the fourteenth hole this afternoon.

Cooper outdrove Von Elm twenty yards on the fifteenth. Von Elm chose a spoon and picked the ball up beautifully, but hooked a trifle to the left and rolled into a trap. That shot, it turned out, decided the day, as far as the end of the morning's eighteen holes, shooting five consecutive birdies and establishing a new course record of 81. Cooper equaled his record of 87 this afternoon.

Gets Eagle on Eighteenth.

Another long drive, followed by a long iron, put Cooper on the edge of the green at the 482 yard sixteenth. Two putts netted another 4. Von Elm again staked his second shot on his hands, but rolled over the cup to long grass, from which he needed three putts to hole out.

The seventeenth, 105 yards across a deep ravine, which had given Cooper trouble in his morning eighteen holes, was holed in by Cooper and he had the supreme setting of the day for his sensational finish on the eighteenth green.

Alex Getting Ready; Takes Up Bowling

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

Being a wise old bird who hasn't been asleep during his fifteen campaigns in the majors, Grover Alexander has gone to work on his arm. Spring training, that annual nightmare of aching muscles, is still a month away, but the veteran Cub has been taking no chances of putting his aged wing on the bum by crowding too much toil into a given period.

He's going to have himself, at least the right arm part of him, in play for good working order before he lands on a north side alley. It takes strong fingers and wrists to get the spin that makes a ball hook or hop. The arm merely produces the speed.

"Great Stuff for the Fingers."

"Nothing like it for an arm," said the veteran yesterday while discussing the pin-smashing feats that he treats himself to three or four times a week on a north side alley. "Gripping the heavy ball is great stuff for the fingers and the fingers are important in any kind of pitching. Also helps the wrist, and that, too, plays its part in the strong fingers and wrists to get the spin that makes a ball hook or hop. The arm merely produces the speed."

Alex came back to town about Christmas time, after spending a couple of months at his home in St. Paul, Neb. Out there he kept down the wasteline of advancing years by giving his trusty shooting iron a heavy play. He also collected his quota of ducks in a week's shoot down on the Illinois river. Now there's nothing left to hit but clay pigeons and he gives them plenty of trouble in the regular events at the Lincoln park traps.

Hamilton Stars in a Hot Battle.

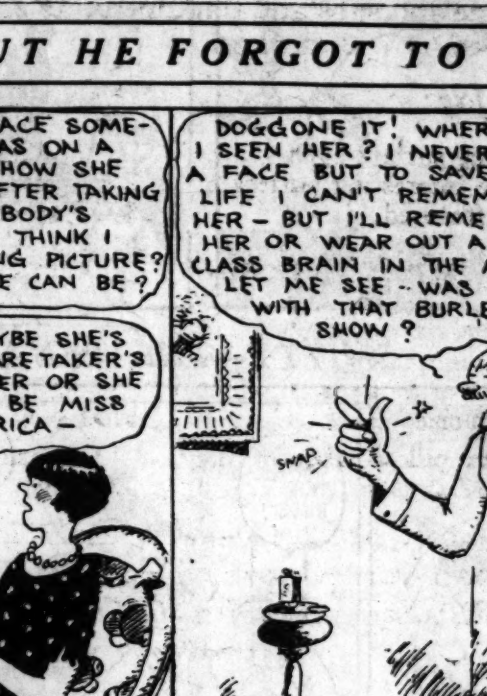

Brilliant basket shooting by Hamilton and sensational support by his teammates enabled Feelman to end the Setters' winning streak in the Knights of Columbus basketball league at seven games yesterday, winning 28 to 23, in a thrilling game at the 1324 Regency armory. It was Setters' first defeat of the season in the west division. Feelman led at half time, 12 to 7. Scores: Feelman, 28; Setters, 23. Hamilton, 17; Ford, 15; O'Connell, 18; Carroll, 14.

Gets Eagle on Eighteenth.

The seventeenth, 105 yards across a deep ravine, which had given Cooper trouble in his morning eighteen holes, was holed in by Cooper and he had the supreme setting of the day for his sensational finish on the eighteenth green.

Cooper again outdrove George. His iron landed him ten feet from the pin. Von Elm's wood shot was to the far side of the green, but he approached neatly. Cooper gave a few twirls to his black oiled putter and with an air of supreme confidence then sank an eagle 3 straight in.

Knop Carries Ball Down Field.

From the thirty-four yard line, where the ball was placed, it was merely a matter of form for the Bears to carry it down the field on the shoulders of the powerful Oscar Knop, to the two yard line, from where Grange went over for a touchdown. Joe Sternaman kicked the goal.

The Bears had scored in the second period when Moon Ducote's punt was blocked, after Britton had punted to the two yard line and Ernie Vick, former Michigan star, fell on the ball for the touchdown. Britton kicked the goal.

Another long drive, followed by a long iron, put Cooper on the edge of the green at the 482 yard sixteenth. Two putts netted another 4. Von Elm again staked his second shot on his hands, but rolled over the cup to long grass, from which he needed three putts to hole out.

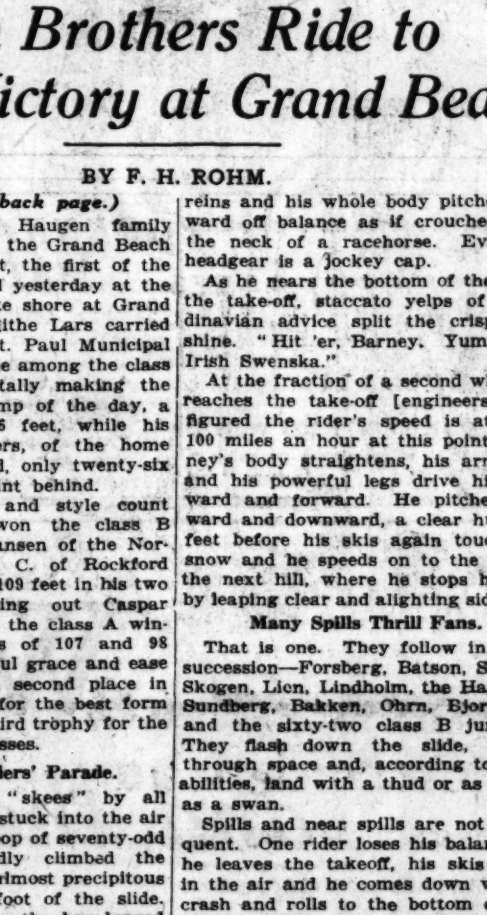

The seventeenth, 105 yards across a deep ravine, which had given Cooper trouble in his morning eighteen holes, was holed in by Cooper and he had the supreme setting of the day for his sensational finish on the eighteenth green.

Cooper again outdrove George. His iron landed him ten feet from the pin. Von Elm's wood shot was to the far side of the green, but he approached neatly. Cooper gave a few twirls to his black oiled putter and with an air of supreme confidence then sank an eagle 3 straight in.

FEELHAN UPSETS SETTERS IN K. C. LEAGUE, 28 TO 23

Hamilton Stars in a Hot Battle.

Brilliant basket shooting by Hamilton and sensational support by his teammates enabled Feelman to end the Setters' winning streak in the Knights of Columbus basketball league at seven games yesterday, winning 28 to 23, in a thrilling game at the 1324 Regency armory. It was Setters' first defeat of the season in the west division. Feelman led at half time, 12 to 7. Scores: Feelman, 28; Setters, 23. Hamilton, 17; Ford, 15; O'Connell, 18; Carroll, 14.

MAY FACTORS, POLITICS, TOO, IN GRAIN MARKET

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Between the action of politicians, farm leaders and professional speculators, the grain markets are in an extremely nervous condition. Sharp and wide fluctuations are to be expected at any time that wheat and corn become congested through over buying or selling.

Should the upward readjustment of values of grains, due to the movement to put them on a parity with other commodities, be successful through enforced legislative action, a higher level of values will be necessary which may effect prices in other countries.

It is apparent from all surrounding circumstances that food values should remain high to give the producer a fair return, in comparison with that secured by workers in other lines. It is suggested by a leading trader that it would be well for grain traders to consider the past and adopt a new standard of price levels, commensurate with changed conditions. This is said, while aiding the farmer, would not hurt consumers to any extent.

Pastured Over Farm Relief.
The problem confronting the grain trade in addition to the prospective enactment of farm relief measures is, how they are to be put into effect, in a way that will benefit the farmer without hurting the consumer and what the cost will be.

No one has come out so far with a statement showing how much it would cost to operate the proposed plan to export the wheat surplus, and what methods are to be used in making the measure operative at the beginning of a crop season, so that farmers will get the full benefit from an advance in the domestic market.

It always has been the theory that whenever economic conditions are disturbed reactions are detrimental and result in losses that remove a good part, if not all, of the previous benefits. Whether the movement will work out as expected, is the most important factor now confronting the politician, farmer, banker and grain trader.

Battle of the Strong.
The wheat market is a big professional affair, with strong operators aligned on both sides. For the present, a two sided market is to be expected as winter is generally a bear month, and while a few of the strongest operators are firm believers in higher prices eventually, they are content to do their buying on declines and take profits as the market advances.

There are selling because prices in Chicago are the highest in the country and United States markets are on a domestic basis, and above the world's parity, being higher than Liverpool, so there is a great deal of spreading between July in Chicago and the same delivery in Liverpool at 23 to 25 difference.

Cash Premiums Advanced.
Outstanding features are the advance of 3 to 4¢ in cash premiums on hard winter wheat last week. To give new Chicago May for our lots with soft red winter wheat at 11 to 12¢ over and an acute shortage of this wheat in southern markets.

The visible supply, which decreased 14,000,000 bu. in January last year owing to heavy exports, is not being changed to any extent and primary receipts are showing surprising volume.

Farm reserves are said to be light and Kansas farmers are estimated to have 10,000,000 bu. and Oklahoma 2,000,000 bu., while one private estimate of farm reserves, country mill and elevator stocks and the visible supply is said to be 200,000,000 bu.

May wheat closed Saturday at $1.77 1/2 for new and $1.75 1/2 for old. July, $1.52 1/2 to $1.54, showing losses on the latter of 1/2¢ and on May of 1/4¢ for the week, and September, $1.44. Prices for the week follow:

Propaganda in Corn.
The propaganda for $1.00 corn in Iowa, so that farmers can make a profit on their big crop, having its effect in checking speculative selling, and is bringing in moderate buying. There was buying of corn and selling of wheat on the belief that should farmers hold back their corn, there will be a good advance for a while, regardless of what may happen later, should stocks continue to increase and the farmers change their position and become free sellers.

Despite the talk about corn being worth more money, farmers are selling considerable, and terminal stocks are increasing. Industries are using more corn and the leader in this line is using around 800,000 bu. per week in all plants. As a help for the corn farmer, it is suggested by a specialist that a tax should be put on black strap molasses to prevent its use in the manufacture of alcohol, which would increase the consumption of corn.

Corn supplies are increasing, although it will take an advance to enlarge the country movement. Closing prices are 28 to 29¢ higher, with a week ago. May 28 1/2, July 29 1/2 to 29 3/4, and September 29 1/2. The week's price follow:

Liquidation in Oats.
Liquidation was among holders of oats last week, yet the closing prices were 1/2 to 1/4¢ higher. The new clearing house plan was put into operation on oat transactions and is said to be working satisfactorily. Consumption in the country is heavy, yet there is an ample movement for all requirements. May closed Saturday at 47 1/2¢, and July at 46 1/2¢. Week's price follow:

Interest in Rye.
Interest in rye was largely increased with a good advance and a reaction, not making being 1/2 to 1/4¢ for the week. Export business was small, yet the buying of futures was due to rye selling relatively low as compared with wheat. May closed at $1.11 1/2 and July at $1.09.
